7. ZONING DOCKET NO. 2/23 - CITY COUNCIL MOTION NO. M-22-485

Brief:

Requesting a Text Amendment to the Comprehensive Zoning Ordinance to modify the Residential Short Term Rental regulations to bring them into compliance with the decision by the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit which determined the homestead exemption requirement to be unconstitutional. The motion includes fourteen (14) items for CPC staff's consideration:

- * Additional/new prohibitions, including capping
Measures such as limiting the number of licenses held by a property owner, limiting the number of STRs an operator can operate, or creating restrictions based on block-face and/or neighborhood caps, spacing, or census tract;
- * Adjusting oversight responsibilities currently
Applicable to owners and operators, including the possible shift to an on-site host requirement or allowance for an on-site operator in lieu of owner;
- * Applicable regulations that may be available relative to the internet platforms that provide STR listings, including platform accountability;
- * Changes to the existing STR categories and license types;
- * Compliance standards;
- * Requiring platforms to collect data;
- * Enforcement mechanisms and penalties including the revocation of licenses and prevention of applicants' ability to apply for new licenses due to historical quality of life violations; use. This includes the possibility of adopting total bans by zoning district, by neighborhood, or citywide.
The proposed text changes would affect regulations that are applied city-wide.
The recommendation of the City Planning Commission being for "MODIFIED APPROVAL".
